Seminar On Intellectual Property For Architects

Synopsis

Architecture is a field where creativity in the arts, science and technology meet. As architects, you will grapple with copyright issues in relation to the works unique to your profession. This presentation will also highlight issues of more practical nature that you should be aware of in your field of work – such as those arising from joint development of works, commissioning, licensing of use of copyright works, and employee management.

Speakers' Profile

Ms Anne Loo Director, (Registry of Designs) & Legal Counsel Intellectual Property Office of Singapore

Ms Anne Loo is the Director of the Registered Designs Registry and Legal Counsel in the Intellectual Property Office of Singapore (IPOS). She had been actively involved in the preparation of the Registered Designs Act and in the setting up of the Designs Registry in November 2000. In addition, she is the Director of the Hearings and Mediation Department, presiding over trademark opposition hearings and proceedings. She also assisted in the drafting of the Plant Varieties Protection Act and Rules and has been appointed as the Director of the most recent addition to the IPOS registries, the Plant Varieties Registry. Anne has given talks on trademarks and conducted workshops and lectures on registered designs at various fora within Singapore.

Mr Glenn Wong Senior Assistant Director/Legal Counsel IPOS, Legal Policy & International Affairs Department

Mr Glenn Wong, a Senior Assistant Director and Legal Counsel for the Legal Policy and International Affairs Division of the Intellectual Property Office of Singapore (IPOS). He obtained his degree in Law in England and subsequently his Masters in Intellectual Property Law at Queen Mary University in London. Since 2002 in his capacity as Senior Assistant Director / Legal Counsel of IPOS, Glenn deals particularly with International IP issues and is, in addition, part of the IPOS team that specialises in dealing with issues pertaining to Copyright and Related rights.

He has been involved in the IP Chapters of many of the Free Trade Agreements that have been/ are being negotiated by Singapore and her trading partners, and is also intimately involved in the review and amendment to the current Copyright Act and other relevant IP legislation.

Glenn also represented IPOS and Singapore at WIPO Standing Committees and is also an active participant at other regional meetings and fora. He is also regularly called upon to represent the Secretariate of the Copyright Tribunal.
