

SIA Series of Design Talks 2006

"The Past + Present = Future"

SINGAPORE 1:1 CITY

Following URA's successful exhibition "Singapore 1:1", a series of talks is now introduced to coincide with the conclusion of the exhibition. The exhibition has documented the buildings designed by the pioneering architects of Singapore, these talks will be an excellent opportunity for the community of professionals to hear from these pioneers their architectural endeavors.

Through this event, it is intended to bring to Singapore architects a greater awareness of our architectural heritage. Furthermore, as veteran practitioners, the speakers will also share their views on current practice and point a way forward regarding the future of Singapore architecture.

Titled "Singapore 1 : 1 past + present = future", this series of talks will involve 6 practitioners whose works are exhibited in "Singapore 1:1". Over 3 weeks in March 2006, 3 sessions (2 speakers each) will be held at URA and SIA. Each speaker will give a half hour talk followed by a short forum cum Q&A session.

To know our future, we must know our past and present.
