PROFILE

Dr Philip Chan

Dr Philip Chan is an Associate Professor with the Department of Building, School of Design and Environment, National University of Singapore. He is the Deputy Head (Finance and Administration), the Programme Director of the joint KCL-NUS MSc (Construction Law and Arbitration) programme and the Director of the Centre for Project Management and Construction Law, NUS. Besides the joint MSc programme, he teaches in the MSc (Project Management) programme as well as the MArch programme.

Outside the university, Dr Chan holds the appointment of the Deputy President of the Strata Titles Board and is a member of the Editorial Advisory Board of the International Construction Law Review. He is also one of two general editors of the Asia International Arbitration Journal. He practises under the law firm of Messrs Philip CF Chan. He is also the former Executive Director and Registrar of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre and is a practising arbitrator. He has been invited by several public and private organisations to give talks and carry out in-house training on matters of construction law including the use of standard form of building contracts and arbitration. In this respect, he has presented more than 120 papers.

He graduated with a Diploma in Building from the Singapore Polytechnic in 1976 and worked in the construction industry. He went on to obtain his LLB and LLM from the University of London. He completed his PhD under the supervision of Duncan Wallace QC. The title of his thesis is "The Development of Construction Law in Singapore".
