SYNOPSIS

The Productivity and Innovation Credit (PIC) scheme was first introduced in Budget 2010 and further enhanced in Budget 2011.

The PIC scheme provides tax benefits for businesses that are investing in productivity improvements. Businesses can enjoy deduction / allowances at 400%, or receive up to $30,000 of cash payout. The tax benefits under PIC will be effective from Year of Assessment (YA) 2011 to YA 2015.

The six activities that will qualify for PIC benefits are:

1. Acquisition or lease of prescribed automation equipment;
2. Training of employees;
3. Acquisition of intellectual property (IP);
4. Registration of IP;
5. Conduct of research of development (R&D) activities;
6. Conduct of approved design activities.

This seminar is specially designed to help participants understand how businesses can benefit from the PIC scheme and other tax initiatives introduced during the Singapore Budget 2011, which include:

1. Corporate Income Tax Rebate and SME Cash Grant
2. Pre-Commencement Expenses for Businesses
3. Tax Deduction on Donations
4. Foreign Tax Credit (FTC) Pooling System

SPEAKERS PROFILE

Ms Joan Fuan (Tax Specialist) and Ms Ang Siok Peing (Senior Tax Officer) with the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore's Corporate Tax Division. They have many years of experience in corporate tax assessment work. In addition, both Joan and Siok Peing are also involved as speakers at seminars on income tax filing obligations of companies and the Productivity and Innovation Credit scheme.
