Talk Title: TAKE Architects: Chapter 1

Synopsis:

TAKE Architects is a boutique architecture practice founded by Kee Wei Hui in 2012.

TAKE Architects specialises in creating bespoke architectural and spatial solutions grounded by site specifics, context and programmatic requirements. Kee believes that the human experience of a space is intrinsically linked to the built environment. TAKE Architects identifies unique solutions for one's spatial and stylistic needs, with a strong belief that good architecture and design is a constantly evolving process that further challenges established norms.

Mr Aamer Taher

Talk Title: Small Houses, Big Ideas

Synopsis:

Ten Houses

In the context of land scarce and densely populated Singapore, landed housing plots tend to be rather small and tightly packed between neighbors.

Aamer will be presenting a number of past and recent relative small projects (including award winning houses) that deal with issues like privacy and multi-generational family vertical segregation while still achieving the garden villa, resort lifestyle.

All with an economy of means and gentle on the environment and energy consumption.

Profile:

Aamer Taher has been practicing as an Architect since the mid ‘90s, upon his return from the Architectural Association School of Architecture in London and after several years of practice in prestigious firms like Michael Hopkins of London and SAA of Singapore.

As a designer, Aamer is inspired by nature, context and culture and is determined that Architecture needs to improve lives with as minimal impact on the environment as possible.

Aamer’s designs are well known for their ‘flair and curves’ as he views every project as a work of Art, conceived through thorough appreciation of site, context and brief forming an interesting ‘dialogue’ between man and nature.

While in professional practice, Aamer served as a Council member of the Singapore Institute of Architects and taught at the School of Architecture, National University of Singapore.

He has a diverse portfolio of projects ranging from luxury houses, master plans, condominiums and mixed developments to hotels, resorts, clubs and restaurants in Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, China and the Maldives. One of Aamer’s clients described his works as “haute architecture” in the sense that they are like ‘haute couture’ or ‘haute cuisine’, custom- and tailor-made to each discerning individual..... thus all uniquely different from each other.
