

SIA Experiential Visit:

First-hand view of how firefighters execute its operation

SIA is initiating a series of experiential events for SIA members to gain first-hand experience of the environment we operate in, specifically the technology, applications, operations and maintenance of processes that are essential in the design of buildings and the built environment.

These events will provide learning points and lessons that will help the architects contribute more effectively in carrying out his/her job.

SIA has arranged an Experiential Visit to a high-rise building premises which will allow visitors to gain first-hand view of how firefighters execute its operation, interfacing with the fire safety facilities within the premises.

Morning Tour comprises of*

- Fire Command Centre*
- Emergency vehicle access and hard standing*
- Riser Inlet/Outlet*
- Location of Hydrants*
- Escape staircases*
- Evac points/ Areas*

the visit stations are subject to availability*
