

WORKSHOP SERIES

NUS Real Estate Development Enterprise Executive Course – Real Estate Development & Market Analysis: The Dynamics of Creating Value

WORKSHOP OVERVIEW

Real estate development is one of the most challenging aspects of the real estate industry. It entails the orchestration of finance, materials, labour & expertise by many parties within a wider, social, economic and political environment. At its best, the process is synergistic, that is, the ultimate combination of resources have a greater value than the sum of the individual parts.

The 2-part workshop series will cover 4 modules and will be conducted over 2 sessions. The first session which will be held on 20 November 2023 (Monday) will cover the following 2 modules:

- Real Estate Development: The Dynamics of Creating Value
- Real Estate Market Analysis: The Mechanics of Market Research and Feasibility Studies

The 2nd session which will be conducted in January 2024, will cover the 2 modules - Development Appraisal and Development Financing.

LEARNING OUTCOME

For this first session, participants will

- Understand how the development process works, from the conception of a development idea to the sourcing for sites, and marketing of the completed building, who the other parties are, and where everyone fits in the value creation process.
- Understand the first steps in the planning and feasibility study process.
- Gain an insight into market research tools and techniques used to predict the performance of a piece of real estate
